28 Aug 2000 - Council rezones 10 Cowell St to allow commercial use, consults with National Trust and NSW Heritage Council. Conservation Policy prepared for site. Contributory heritage protection afforded.

11 June 2002 - Council declares success in restoration of heritage and conservation works for 10 Cowell St. Council cites restoration work as an example of what can be achieved in heritage conservation works.

1 March 2005 - Council receives heritage report commissioned by expert Paul Davies report. Identifies 10 Cowell Street as important Heritage item, and recommends upgrading its heritage status.

16 April 2012 - Council gazettes Draft LEP 2012 for public comment. Heritage status of 10 Cowell Street upgraded, listed as local heritage item under Schedule 5

21 May 2012 - Public submissions for the Draft LEP 2012 close. No objections received regarding 10 Cowell Street's heritage status

30 July 2012 - Council formulates an amended Draft LEP 2012, submits this LEP to Department of Planning, 10 Cowell Street deleted from the list of local heritage items as per Schedule 5, heritage protection removed

13 Aug 2012 – Councillors receive report to sell 10 Cowell St to developer to allow redevelopment of Gladesville Shopping Village

3 June 2013 - Council receives DA from developer for Gladesville Shopping Village. Community learns Developer has acquired 10 Cowell St (without public tender) and plans it's demolition.

9 December 2013 – Councillors articulate concerns about the delays in heritage protection from senior council management, despite positive recommendations from council's Heritage Officer.

10 February 2014 – Councillor Gary Bird requests a 12mth interim heritage protection for 10 Cowell Street be affected by the council's GM Barry Smith.

24 February 2014 – Council's General Manager Barry Smith fails to provide IHO as requested by Clr Gary Bird.